For by grace you have been saved, through faith, and this is not of yourselves: it is the gift of God!

Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 12:6

Notes for the Season

The Post-Pentecost Season is a season for growth and afterthought. We have celebrated the great events of salvation history - the birth, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus, His return to heavenly glory, and His coming to back to His Church with His Spirit; now we are to grow into what it means that we have celebrated. The colour of growth is green - as is the colour of the season

Today:

Special Order of Service

Hymns: 563 - 579 - 781:1-2 - 577 - 493:6

Pastor Tinglund is away on holiday. We thank the men of our congregations who serve us today with the Word of God and lead us in our worship this morning for their service and their willingness to serve.

Just so we do not forget:

Our Father, who art in heaven. What does this mean?

With these words God tenderly invites us to believe that He is our true Father and that we are His true children, so that with all boldness and confidence we may ask Him as dear children ask their dear Father. Of the Small Catechism

This is our faith - from the Confessions of our Church

In order that troubled hearts may have a firm, sure consolation, and also in order that due honor be given to Christ's merit and God's grace, the Scriptures teach that the righteousness of faith before God consists only in the gracious reconciliation or the forgiveness of sins, which is presented to us out of pure grace, only for the sake of the merit of the Mediator, Christ, which is received through faith alone in the Gospel promise. Formula Concord, the Solid Declaration

LWML Meeting at Grace on Monday at 7 pm.

A Life Thought from Lutherans For Life: "Our outer self is wasting away ... in this [earthly] tent we groan" (2 Corinthians 4:16-5:2). The Scriptures understand the difficulties of a terminal diagnosis. And it holds life precious all the way through the bitter end: "Our inner self is being renewed day by day ... preparing for us an eternal weight of glory." Physician-assisted suicide cannot even compare!

A Stewardship Thought for the Sunday: Part of our readings for today is Mark 3:35 - "Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother." Doing the will of God starts with trusting in His Son Jesus Christ. Once we have faith in Him and have been reborn as new creatures through Holy Baptism, we strive to grow in this faith and in a life that agrees with our faith. We should strive to grow in generosity, in kindness, and in love across our callings, which include the home, church, and society while growing in the family of God. For all who do His will are his brothers, and sisters, and mothers. From the LCMS Stewardship Ministry

What is on our websites? Our wedding policies are posted on our web sites. Our websites also have recent sermons, bulletins and newsletters posted, in case you missed or lost them - and the versions on the websites are corrected or updated as need has been. Pastor Tinglund's articles for the Greybull Standard and the Basin Republican Rustler are posted, also, along with small articles about the vestments used at our worship services, and a few other things. Please feel free to visit our websites, and to do so often. The more visits we have, the easier our websites will be to find for people who are looking for a Lutheran church in the area.
